Venue: Seminar Hall, Center for Nanoscience and Engineering
Time: 9:30 am onwards

Event Details

This event is intended to provide an excellent platform for researchers across the country to come together and interact with each other. There will be three Round table/ Panel discussion sessions by leaders from Startup Companies, Academic Institutions and Industries on opportunities available for collaborations in terms of building careers in academics or industries and/or pursue innovations towards forming start ups. Another highlight of this event will be poster presentation (and a quick pitch talk) by participating researchers in areas such as Physics of Devices, Modeling and Simulation, Smart Materials, Fabrication Technologies and Systems & Applications.

In addition to those from IISc, around 30 research scholars / Postgraduate students of institutions/universities across the country have registered for this event and confirmed their participation. We are inviting potential recruiters to this event to connect with the participants for exploiting upcoming opportunities.

Who Should Attend

Apart from special invitees and registered participants, Principals and Heads of departments of academic institutions, and managers and technical leaders from industries are welcome to attend this event and interact with participants.
