To,

The Director/Principle/Head of Organization,

Indian Institutions/Industries/Group of Innovators

Subject: Invitation for the nomination of Sri C.S. Sastry and Sri G S R Sastry Memorial Award by ISSS Hyderabad Chapter for the handheld Portable Ultrasonic Devices in the form of prototype.

Dear Sir,

The Institute of Smart Structure and Systems, Hyderabad Chapter is happy to announce Sri C.S. Sastry and Sri G S R Sastry Memorial Award for the handheld Portable Ultrasonic Device (PUD) to receive nomination for teams of innovators working in the development of hand held portable ultrasonic devices.

It will be awarded to a team which has made significant contributions in developing the prototype of a hand held portable ultrasonic device using MEMS or other relevant technologies. The award carries a special citation, and a cash prize of Rs. 50,000/- (or Rs. 25,000/- each in case two teams are found as winners) sponsored by a donor in the memory of his father Sri C.S. Sastry and his father-in-law Sri G. Sita Rama Sastry who were academicians.

This award is intended to recognize contributions towards development of handheld PUD made by an entrepreneur who has established the technologies pertinent to the ultrasonic devices or systems using micro and nano technologies or other upcoming technologies OR someone who have championed the cause of commercialization with ultrasonic device innovation with at least a prototype, leading to a product.

This award is only a one-time event and the nomination is valid till the announcement of the award, subject to nominees meeting eligibility requirements. However, the details may be updated as required.

Looking forward to receiving your nomination for the same.

Yours sincerely,

Dr. Ashok Kumar Pandey, Email: ashok@mae.iith.ac.in

Chairman, ISSS Hyderabad Chapter
